- National Cancer Institute Designated Comprehensive Cancer Center: The only one in Colorado and one of only 71 nationally.
- Ranked 11th in the nation for health sciences research and 13th globally, according to Nature's 2026 Index report.
- America's Best Large Employer: Recognized nationally by Forbes in 2024 and 2025 as one of America's best large employers for its benefits, employee recognition, opportunities for advancement and much more.
- Age-Friendly University: Designated for leadership in research, education, and care for older adults.
- Military Friendly: Top 10 designation as a Military Friendly School for providing military service members and their families with high-quality education programs, and a Department of War Skillbridge participating employer.

The Role: Dean, School of Dental Medicine

Join one of the nation's leading academic medical institutions and help shape the future of oral health education, research, clinical care, and community impact. The University of Colorado Anschutz seeks a visionary, collaborative, and strategic leader to serve as the next Dean of the School of Dental Medicine.

As the chief academic officer of the school, the Dean will lead a nationally respected institution known for innovation in dental education, interdisciplinary clinical care, groundbreaking research, and service to communities across Colorado and beyond. Positioned within the CU Anschutz academic health center, the Dean will collaborate closely with leaders from the Schools of Medicine, Pharmacy, Public Health, Graduate School, and the College of Nursing to advance transformative education, expand research opportunities, and strengthen clinical excellence.

Located on the dynamic CU Anschutz campus—adjacent to the Fitzsimons Innovation Community and nationally recognized partners including University of Colorado Hospital and Children’s Hospital Colorado—the School of Dental Medicine offers a unique environment where discovery, innovation, and patient care converge.

This is an extraordinary opportunity for an accomplished leader to build on a strong foundation, inspire faculty, staff, and students, foster strategic partnerships, advance fundraising and community engagement efforts, and drive the next era of growth and impact for one of the region’s premier dental schools.

If you are passionate about advancing academic excellence, leading innovation, and improving oral health outcomes for future generations, we invite you to apply.

Core Responsibilities:

- Provide visionary leadership and strategic direction that advances the School of Dental Medicine’s mission, aligns with campus and system priorities, and strengthens its national reputation in education, research, clinical care, and community engagement.
- Lead and continuously enhance academic programs, ensuring educational excellence, innovation, student success, accreditation compliance, and interprofessional collaboration.
- Oversee clinical operations and patient care delivery, promoting quality, innovation, operational sustainability, regulatory compliance, and expanded access to oral healthcare.
- Advance a thriving research enterprise by growing research funding, fostering interdisciplinary collaboration, strengthening scholarly activity, and translating discoveries into meaningful impact.
- Recruit, develop, and retain exceptional faculty and staff while fostering a culture of collaboration, engagement, professional growth, inclusion, and organizational excellence.
- Ensure sound financial stewardship through strategic planning, budgeting, resource allocation, revenue generation, and management of facilities and infrastructure.
- Serve as the chief ambassador for the school by building relationships with alumni, donors, community partners, industry leaders, professional organizations, and government stakeholders to enhance visibility, fundraising, and community impact.
- Promote interdisciplinary collaboration across CU Anschutz and its partners to advance integrated education, research, clinical care, and innovation.
- Maintain effective governance, accreditation, compliance, risk management, and accountability practices that support institutional excellence and continuous improvement.

This role reports to the Executive Vice Chancellor of Academic and Student Affairs, Provost and Chief Academic Officer, Laura Borgelt, PharmD, MBA.

Ideal Candidate:

The ideal Dean is a nationally recognized academic dental leader and accomplished scholar who can inspire excellence in education, research, clinical care, and community engagement while strategically leading the School of Dental Medicine into its next era of growth, innovation, and impact.
