

August, 2021

The Anschutz Medical Campus Orchestra is excited to announce the appointment of their new Music Director, Jeremy D. Cuebas. Jeremy completed graduate training in orchestral conducting at Colorado State University and has worked with the Fort Collins Symphony as assistant conductor since 2018. He is an active participant in virtual and in-person conducting workshops and is the founder and co-host of the Podium Time Podcast, an educational and inspirational interview-style podcast for students of conducting. Jeremy also has experience leading digital communications for the Fort Collins Symphony Orchestra and is excited to help grow the AMC Orchestra's membership and audience.

The AMC Orchestra is open to ALL musicians of the Anschutz Medical Campus and community members. Rehearsals are held most Thursday evenings during the academic year from 6-7:30 pm in the Ed 2 building. No auditions are required, and there are places for musicians of all abilities. Contact AMCOrchestra@gmail.com for more information on joining the orchestra or to be added to the email list.

