

Medical Review Auschwitz:
Medicine Behind the Barbed Wire

May 2-7, 2020
Kraków, Poland

Student & Trainee Scholarship Opportunity

(airfare, room & board and conference registration)

Application Deadline: January 20th

About:

This unique opportunity is presented by the CU Center for Bioethics and Humanities in collaboration with the Auschwitz-Birkenau Memorial and Museum and other partners including Harvard Medical School Center for Bioethics, Jagellonian University Medical College, and the UNESCO Chair in Bioethics and the Holocaust. Students will visit areas of the camps not usually accessible to tourists and meet with international experts on the legacy of health professional involvement in the Holocaust.

Submissions:

Applicants will submit a CV, two letters of recommendation (including at least one from a CU faculty member) and a <1,000 word essay describing why they want to take part in the program, the relevance of the program to their current stage of education, any experiences that would make participation in the program of particular, exceptional educational or career-development value at this time, and how they hope to use what they learn when they return. This scholarship is open to all Anschutz Medical Campus students and trainees, including residents and fellows.

CU applicants are additionally required to submit a statement of good academic standing and support from their current program, including a leave to participate in the entire program from May 1-8 (including travel days.) Submissions should be sent directly to the Secretariat of the Medical Review Auschwitz conference at auschwitz.conference@mp.pl. For questions contact Dr. Matthew Wynia, Director of the Center for Bioethics and Humanities at matthew.wynia@cuanschutz.edu.
