

Reading & Discussion with Author Cindy Weinstein, PhD

Cindy Weinstein is the Eli and Edythe Broad Professor of English at the California Institute of Technology. Finding the Right Words, reflects upon Weinstein's father's experience with early-onset Alzheimer's. Each chapter reveals how the disease presented itself, and co-author neurologist Dr. Bruce Miller responds with a neurological explanation.

Join us for a discussion with Mark Kissler, MD, MS, Assistant Professor at CU School of Medicine.
