

STUDENT ORGANIZATION BASICS

What is a registered student organization?

-Student-run organization approved by the office of student involvement or the appropriate responsible office

-Student organizations are required to be recognized by the Office of Student Engagement to function within the university policies and utilize the benefits of membership.

- Ensure community safety
- Safeguard student recourses
- Encourage effective practices
- Protect organizations from risk

Types of Organizations

Campus Wide

Organizations open to all students regardless of school or program and are NOT associated with a larger local, state or national group

Associated

Organizations connected to a local, state or national organization and have been recognized as a chapter at CU Anschutz

Affiliated

Organizations connected to only one program, school, or college

Registered Orgs

- Comprised of CU Anschutz Students
- Lead by CU Anschutz students
- Meets requirements
- Access to benefits
- Renew annually

Non Registered Orgs

- Comprised of CU Anschutz students
- More independent from CU A
- No access to benefits
- Business

