

FINANCIAL SUCCESS SEMINARS

canvas  credit
union

Financial Literacy Series

Financial education designed for students

Canvas Credit Union has teamed up with CU Anschutz to bring you free financial education seminars to help you prepare for the next phase of your financial journey. These seminars are tailored to the college experience, covering topics like student loans, income tax, and the psychology behind the decisions we make with our money.

Food and drinks will be provided.

University of Colorado
Anschutz Medical Campus

Scan to register

Financial Foundations

Your financial well-being starts with the fundamentals of spending, saving, borrowing, and future planning. Get a clear understanding of banking products, savings tactics, and so much more. Let's take a look at your whole money life to make your financial position stronger now and in the future.

Wednesday, October 8 12-1 PM

Education 2 North

13120 East 19th Ave, Classroom 1202, Aurora

Create a Budget and Start Saving

Many Americans are stressed about money and don't have funds for emergencies. Don't let surprises sting your finances. Pick up the tools and resources at this seminar to start mastering your financial goals, setting spending plans, tracking expenses, and affording life.

Wednesday, October 29 12-1 PM

Education 2 North

13120 East 19th Ave, Classroom 1202, Aurora

Credit Scores

You know that a good credit score can save you time and money. But how do you get a good score? Separate fact from fiction, learn how to obtain reports, scores, and clean up errors. Plus, get specific strategies to improve your score. Whether establishing credit, getting back on track, or aiming for a high score, our seminar will get you on your way!

Wednesday, November 12 12-1 PM

Education 2 North

13120 East 19th Ave, Classroom 1202, Aurora