Giving Thanks to an Essential Worker in Healthcare:

Nov. 21st 5-7pm

For November the theme is giving thanks. With this year being a very busy year for those who work in essential fields, we wanted to provide you all to come together to write letters. For every letter written, an ear protector will be sent out to show our appreciation for all of the hard work they’ve been doing for the past few months.

Fill out this google form for writing supplies!

After letter writing, students who attend will be able to watch a movie from the following list: UP, The Little Prince, Let it Shine

SteamPoints Prize winners: Students will receive an email from Scholars Council, but students who are set to be winners for the month must be present at the end-of-month meeting to receive their prize.
