COAHEC Housing Policy Flow Chart for Away Clinical Rotations

Eligibility: Anschutz Medical Campus (AMC) health professions’ students on clinical away rotations are eligible. LIC rotations, Residents, paid interns, and pre-health students are not eligible for Colorado AHEC (COAHEC) housing. Housing cannot be an AMC health professions’ student’s primary residence.

 All Hybrid LIC clerkships housing during the 2022 academic year will be based on decision by the School of Medicine SOM. The SOM may either refer to and follow the extended rotation policy (in which students are eligible for COAHEC arranged housing and the SOM then pays for the housing for the first 2 months and month to month thereafter) or the SOM may decide to follow the LIC housing policy (in which students find their own housing and are not reimbursed).

Rotation submitted to COAHEC program office (PO) by program coordinators (PC) >42 days before rotation begins.

Within 0-2 business days of submission, an email is sent by COAHEC PO to the AMC student and AMC School program coordinator (PC). PC should verify that the information in the email is correct for the rotation. If any information is not correct, (PC) notifies COAHEC PO at coahechousing@cuanschutz.edu.

1-7 days later: AMC student responds and enters their request. COAHEC PO, PC, AMC school coordinator, AMC student, COAHEC Regional Center (RC) get instant notification validating housing request via email.

Student requests COAHEC arranged housing

Within 1-2 business days of housing request, COAHEC RC contacts student via email to confirm student’s request.

COAHEC RC secures housing and notifies student via email

Student begins rotation

Eligibility:
- Anschutz Medical Campus (AMC) health professions’ students on clinical away rotations are eligible.
- LIC rotations, Residents, paid interns, and pre-health students are not eligible.
- Housing cannot be an AMC health professions’ student’s primary residence.

 All Hybrid LIC clerkships housing during the 2022 academic year will be based on decision by the School of Medicine SOM. The SOM may either refer to and follow the extended rotation policy (in which students are eligible for COAHEC arranged housing and the SOM then pays for the housing for the first 2 months and month to month thereafter) or the SOM may decide to follow the LIC housing policy (in which students find their own housing and are not reimbursed).

Student begins rotation

COAHEC’s payment contract includes one night prior to the rotation and every night of the rotation. AMC Schools are invoiced quarterly.

AMC students will not be reimbursed if any of the following apply:
- AMC student submits the official COAHEC rent receipt form for reimbursement >46 days after rotation end date.
- AMC student resides with immediate family members e.g., parents or siblings during their rotation.
- AMC student resides in primary residence during rotation.

AMC students may contact COAHEC PO at coahechousing@cuanschutz.edu if they have not received reimbursement check 4-6 weeks after submission.

Student begins rotation

AMC students will not be reimbursed if any of the following apply:
- AMC student submits the official COAHEC rent receipt form for reimbursement >46 days after rotation end date.
- AMC student resides with immediate family members e.g., parents or siblings during their rotation.
- AMC student resides in primary residence during rotation.

AMC students may contact COAHEC PO at coahechousing@cuanschutz.edu if they have not received reimbursement check 4-6 weeks after submission.

Eligibility:
- Anschutz Medical Campus (AMC) health professions’ students on clinical away rotations are eligible.
- LIC rotations, Residents, paid interns, and pre-health students are not eligible.
- Housing cannot be an AMC health professionals’ student’s primary residence.

 All Hybrid LIC clerkships housing during the 2022 academic year will be based on decision by the School of Medicine SOM. The SOM may either refer to and follow the extended rotation policy (in which students are eligible for COAHEC arranged housing and the SOM then pays for the housing for the first 2 months and month to month thereafter) or the SOM may decide to follow the LIC housing policy (in which students find their own housing and are not reimbursed).